

Working on the premise that everyone needs a little help at one time or another and understanding as Christians that we should all be here to glorify His Name by emulating His life of service and self-sacrifice, the HEARTLINE, sponsored by the Board of Deacons, is a service of help to those in need.

Services provided by volunteers include:

transportation * meals * minor household repairs light housework * in-house child care * grocery shopping and friendly visitations.

These services are provided on an urgent and temporary basis and it can only work if we know of the need.

While independence is commendable, no one should be reluctant to ask for help when it is needed. A phone-call or word spoken to Michele Collins, a member of the Board of Deacons or the Pastor is all that is necessary and we will take it from there.

Of course the other half of this service is the volunteers. While we already have several of them, more are welcome. Anyone willing to be added to that list may also speak to Michele and never underestimate the value of what you can do, however small. The more volunteers we have the lighter the load for all.

There are no charges for these services.
Anyone wishing to make a financial donation to assist those in need may do so by contributing to the Deacon's fund.
